Celebration of World Consumer Rights Day

On March 15, 2020, Kala Mahavidyalaya in Adas celebrated World Consumer Rights Day with great enthusiasm and participation. The event aimed to raise awareness about consumer rights and the importance of fair practices in the market.

The event was presided over by the esteemed President of Kala Mahavidyalaya, Pri Gangne Sir. The chief guest for the occasion was Dr. Deshmukh P.S. Sir from Kala Mahavidyalaya, Adas, whose presence added significant value to the event. The program commenced with a warm welcome and an introduction by Dr. Bidve B.N, who highlighted the significance of World Consumer Rights Day and the need for consumer awareness in today's economy.

In his keynote address, Dr. Deshmukh P.S spoke about the evolution of consumer rights and the pivotal role they play in ensuring fair trade practices. He emphasized the need for consumers to be well-informed and vigilant to protect themselves from exploitation. His insights and practical examples were greatly appreciated by the attendees, who found his speech both enlightening and inspiring.

Following the keynote address, various sessions were conducted, focusing on different aspects of consumer rights, including the legal framework protecting consumers, the responsibilities of businesses, and the role of consumer organizations. These sessions were interactive, allowing students and participants to engage in discussions and ask pertinent questions.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Kolgire Sir, who expressed gratitude to the chief guest, the President, the faculty members, and all participants for making the event a success. He highlighted the importance of continuing such educational initiatives to empower consumers and promote a fair marketplace.

Overall, the celebration of World Consumer Rights Day at Kala Mahavidyalaya was a resounding success, fostering greater awareness and understanding of consumer rights among the students and the community.
